 India's Modi vows to protect farmers, cuts tax, pushes self-reliance amid Trump tariff tensions

PM Modi's Independence Day speech underscored India's push for self-reliance, GST cuts to spur consumption, and protection of farmers amid U.S. tariff pressures. While tax reforms may boost domestic demand, steep U.S. duties threaten exports and growth. India is likely to pivot toward alternative trade partners and expand local manufacturing, but rising anti-U.S. sentiment risks straining foreign investment and corporate ties.

 Second senior Chinese diplomat detained for questioning

The detention of senior diplomats Liu Jianchao and Sun Haiyan signals deepening uncertainty in China's foreign policy leadership. The unexplained probes suggest possible internal power struggles or corruption investigations, raising questions over Beijing's diplomatic stability amid rising tensions with Washington.

 Trump shifts stance on road to Ukraine peace after meeting Putin in Alaska

The Trump-Putin summit in Anchorage ended without an agreement, highlighting deep differences over Ukraine. Trump urged a deal, while Putin remained firm on Russia's stance. Zelenskyy is open to trilateral talks, but progress seems limited. The deadlock may prolong the conflict, with Europe keeping pressure on Russia and tensions remaining high.
