👉 Russian strikes on Kyiv kill six and injure more than 50, Ukrainian officials say

At least six people, including a six-year-old boy, were killed and over 50 injured after Russian drone and missile strikes hit Kyiv overnight. Residential buildings, a hospital, a school, and a kindergarten were damaged. Ukrainian officials warn the death toll may rise, with people still trapped under rubble. Trump, during a UK visit, shortened his earlier ceasefire deadline for Putin from 50 to around 10 days, threatening tougher sanctions if attacks continue. He expressed frustration over the ongoing strikes despite supposed peace talks, saying there's a gap between Putin's promises and the continued assault on Ukrainian cities.

👉 Trump hits Brazil with 50% tariffs and sanctions judge in Bolsonaro case

The U.S. sanctioned Brazilian Supreme Court Judge Alexandre de Moraes, accusing him of arbitrary detentions and censorship in the investigation of ex-President Bolsonaro's alleged coup attempt. Bolsonaro denies the claims and calls Moraes a "dictator." Following the sanctions, President Trump raised tariffs on Brazil to 50%, citing political persecution of Bolsonaro. Key exports like orange juice and aircraft parts were exempted. Brazil threatened to retaliate. Tensions between the countries are rising, despite past ties between Trump and Bolsonaro. Trump compared Bolsonaro's prosecution to his own legal troubles, calling it a political attack. Bolsonaro thanked Trump for his support.

👉 Delta flight makes emergency landing after turbulence injures 25 people

A Delta Airlines flight from Salt Lake City to Amsterdam made an emergency landing in Minneapolis after encountering severe turbulence. The Airbus A330-900, carrying 275 passengers and 13 crew, diverted just over two hours into the flight. Upon landing, 25 passengers were taken to hospitals. Delta stated it is assisting affected passengers. Turbulence, defined as exerting over 1.5g-force, can lift unbelted passengers from their seats. The U.S. has recorded 207 serious turbulence-related injuries since 2009. Globally, around 5,000 such incidents occur annually among over 35 million flights. Medical staff met the flight to assess crew and passenger conditions.
