IMF reaches staff-level agreement on Egypt's fifth, sixth loan programme reviews

The IMF said it reached a staff-level agreement with Egypt on the fifth and sixth reviews under its Extended Fund Facility, a step that could unlock about $2.5 billion in disbursements once approved by the IMF executive board. The fund combined the two reviews to give Egyptian authorities more time to meet key objectives. The IMF also said it agreed at staff level on the first review of Egypt's Resilience and Sustainability Facility, potentially opening access to an additional $1.3 billion.

Two CMA CGM vessels navigate the Suez Canal in sign of easing tension

Egypt's Suez Canal Authority said two CMA CGM vessels transited the canal, a sign that disruptions linked to the Gaza war and Red Sea insecurity might be easing. Since late 2023, many carriers rerouted around the Cape of Good Hope after Houthi attacks on commercial shipping, hitting a key Egyptian foreign-currency earner. Reuters noted that since a fragile Gaza ceasefire took effect on Oct. 10, no Houthi attacks were reported, prompting some reassessment, though firms remain cautious.

S&P registers record close as growth stocks advance

U.S. stocks rose and the S&P 500 posted a record close after a burst of economic data pushed Treasury yields higher and boosted growth shares. Reuters cited Commerce Department figures showing third-quarter GDP grew at a 4.3% annualized pace, beating expectations, supported by strong consumer spending. The session highlighted continued investor appetite for growth names even as rates expectations shifted. The report also pointed to notable single-stock moves tied to corporate deal news and earnings-related updates.
