Russia hits Ukraine energy infrastructure with major missile, drone strikes, Kyiv says

Russia launched major overnight missile and drone strikes on Ukraine's energy infrastructure, hitting Kyiv, the Black Sea port of Odesa and central regions, Kyiv reported. At least one person was killed and five wounded in the Kyiv area, and residential damage was reported. Ukrainian air defenses intercepted many drones and missiles. President Volodymyr Zelenskiy said Russia prioritizes attacks over diplomacy, with strikes occurring almost daily as part of its full-scale invasion that began in 2022.

Brazil doesn't want 'new Cold War', Lula says before Trump meeting

Brazilian President Luiz Inácio Lula da Silva said Brazil does not want a "new Cold War" and urged the U.S. to treat all nations equally, ahead of a planned March meeting with U.S. President Donald Trump in Washington. Speaking in New Delhi after a visit to India, Lula outlined an agenda including trade, immigration, investment and academic cooperation. He has disagreed with Trump on issues like tariffs and foreign policy but expressed optimism about improving bilateral relations.

Police officer killed, 24 people wounded in bomb explosions in Ukraine's Lviv

A police officer was killed and 24 people were injured by multiple explosions in Lviv, western Ukraine, around midnight, Ukraine's National Police said. The blasts occurred after patrol officers responded to a reported shop break-in, with a second explosion shortly afterward. Officials said the devices were homemade, and Lviv's mayor called the incident a terrorist act. President Volodymyr Zelenskiy said authorities have detained a suspect as the investigation continues.
