Trump Unharmed After Shooting Incident at Correspondents' Dinner

President Donald Trump was unharmed after shots were fired during the White House Correspondents' Dinner at the Washington Hilton. Secret Service agents evacuated Trump and senior officials, while the suspect, identified by US media as 31-year-old Cole Tomas Allen from California, was taken into custody. Authorities said one officer was protected by a bullet-resistant vest, and the suspect appeared to have acted alone, though the motive remains under investigation. Federal charges are expected as the FBI and law enforcement continue their inquiry.

Airlines Push to Keep Higher Fares Despite Fuel Relief

Major US airlines are raising fares as jet fuel costs surge due to the war in Iran, but ticket prices may not fall even if fuel prices decline. Airlines say strong travel demand, record bookings, and customers' willingness to pay for premium options are supporting higher prices. Carriers are also reducing less profitable flights, which removes cheaper fare options and raises average ticket prices. Analysts warn that weaker low-cost competition, especially if Spirit Airlines shrinks or exits the market, could allow major airlines to keep fares elevated for longer.

Trump Cancels Envoys' Trip as Iran Rejects Talks Under Pressure

US President Donald Trump cancelled his envoys' planned visit to Pakistan, saying Iran had not presented a satisfactory peace proposal. The move came after Iranian Foreign Minister Abbas Araghchi left Pakistan, where he had shared a possible framework with mediators to end the conflict. Tehran continues to reject negotiations while under siege, while regional mediation efforts remain focused on finding a diplomatic path to de-escalation.
